RELEVANT LAW(S):

ISSUE/PROPOSAL STATEMENT: Assess the continuing need for Neighborhood City Halls.

RATIONALE: “Neighborhood City Halls need also [to] be assessed now to ensure that, during these “lean” times they are need and, if so, their role clearly defined, with that information disseminated to the citizens of the City. (It seems to me that most people don’t know how they function and what they can and cannot do, or the specific services offered at each site. The Commission need to evaluate their existence as a regular part of city services. Should they remain as they are[?]; some Halls merged[?]; some Halls eliminated?) Their role in City government needs to be clearly spelled out.”-Gwinnette W. Crownley, Letter, dated November 15, 2010.
